

Legal Notice

Scope of Application

You are currently visiting the official website homealp.com, a platform for distributing real estate properties for sale and year-round rental, operated by C.T. Creative Technologies SA on behalf of the member agencies of the C.I.T.I. cooperative (Cooperative for Tourism and Real Estate Innovation).

The principles outlined below also apply to other forms of communication associated with the site (newsletters, notifications, etc.). This legal notice applies to all content displayed on homealp.com.

Specific provisions may apply to other websites published by client companies of Creative Technologies SA. This legal notice may be modified at any time with immediate effect.

Intellectual Property Rights and Other Rights

C.T. Creative Technologies SA is the owner and operator of the homealp.com website. All elements of the site (trademarks, names, titles, logos, photos, texts, graphics, etc.) are protected by intellectual property rights.

Consulting, downloading, or partially reproducing the site does not grant any usage or ownership rights over its content.

Any reproduction, modification, or distribution of the content for commercial purposes is prohibited without prior written authorization.

Disclaimer of Liability

Creative Technologies SA declines all liability for any consequences resulting from access, inability to access, or use of the homealp.com website, including in cases of negligence.

The listings published on the site are provided by the member agencies of C.I.T.I., which remain solely responsible for the accuracy and updating of the information provided.

The site may contain links to third-party websites. Creative Technologies SA assumes no responsibility for their content or data protection policies.

Data Transfer via the Internet

As an open network accessible to anyone, the Internet does not provide a secure environment. Even though the transmission of individual data packets is generally encrypted, this does not apply to the sender or the recipient.

Furthermore, even if both sender and recipient are located in Switzerland, the data may transit through foreign countries with lower data protection standards than Switzerland.

Therefore, C.T. Creative Technologies SA declines all responsibility for the security of data during its transfer over the Internet.

Collection and Use of Information

When a visitor accesses the website, various data are recorded (e.g., the visitor's IP address, the date and time of access, the name of the accessed file, etc.).

Client information and data are necessary for order processing and business relationships. C.T. Creative Technologies SA may notify its clients by email regarding the availability of software updates or new services. C.T. Creative Technologies SA complies with the provisions of the Swiss Data Protection Act and all related regulations when collecting, processing, and using personal data.

Customer data collected as a result of orders is used internally for statistical purposes only. No information is shared with other companies.

Any customer information accessed by C.T. Creative Technologies SA in the context of technical support, data correction, or service customization is handled confidentially and is only accessible to employees assigned to the task.

All employees who, through their work with C.T. Creative Technologies SA, have access to customer data are required to treat it confidentially and not to transmit or disclose it to third parties.

Once the service is completed, the customer data is stored in the database of the agency that published the listing. The customer acknowledges and agrees to this use of their data.

Cookies

The website may use cookies to analyze traffic or facilitate navigation. These cookies are anonymous and serve solely to improve the user experience.

Data Security

The security of stored personal data is guaranteed.
